Dear Mrs. Manley:

In a recent phone conversation of Mr. Liddell of this office and Mrs. J. Jones of your office staff, we were advised that any information relative to air travel should be handled directly by letter to you.

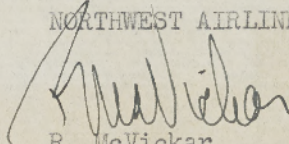

We are taking this opportunity to inform you of the services now rendered by the Northwest Airlines from the Newark Airport, in the event that you desire air travel for any of the members of your baseball club. The Northwest Airlines services, as the name implies, the Northwest area of the United States, Detroit; Milwaukee; Minneapolis; Billings, Montana; Seattle, Washington and Portland, Oregon, with many local stops between. We now have three flights originating from the Newark Airport with five additional flights from La Guardia Field in New York.

In the above mentioned phone conversation it was stressed that the Newark Eagles do not, as a unit, fly. However, circumstances in which it is necessary for individuals of this team to travel may arise in which instance we of this office would be only too pleased to cooperate in the necessary routine of making reservations.

We have taken the liberty of putting your name on our mailing list to keep you supplied with our latest schedules. We look forward to being of service to you in the near future.

Very truly yours,

NORTHWEST AIRLINES, INC.
